on his sleeve. "The servants are up-a policeman is evidently coming along

"You go to the gallow," muttered Mrs.

"I!" the perspiration burst out on Bernard's forehead, and he started back.

"Are you mad?"
"You are, you are," went on the house-keeper, hurriedly; "you foo!! It is known

"I know nothing. I-I" Mrs. Gilroy put Hark! he is entering the hall. I must-

Dies of Broken Heart While

Reading Son's Letters.

BOY IN DANNEMORA PRISON

Makes Plea for Forgiveness-Parent

a Veteran of Civil War, and Was Seriously Wounded at Vicksburg.

Stricken While Sitting in Bed-The

New York, Nov. 23 .- Evidently unable dicate that the old man literally died of a

The Union veteran had evidently been ters from his son, several of which were

One of the letters, which began, "My you several letters, which, as yet, you have not felt inclined to answer.

one of the letters informing his

Story of a Wreeked Life,

BELMONT COLT STOPS

Lord of the Vale Is Beaten by Onatas at Benning.

BAD YEAR FOR HASTINGS' SON

O'Neil, 109; Tologgan, 112, and Tom Mankins, 110.

Sixth race—Mile; selling. Broomston, 104; Burke Cockran, 110; Globe Runner, 112; Duessa, 37; San Primo, 108; Oberon, 37; Arabo, 107; Plavigny and Odd Ella, 100 each; Merry Belle, 37; Missouri Lad and Florizel, 107 each; Hand Bag, 102; Safety Light, 109, and Henry Watterson, 106. Year the Six-year-old Now Will Be Retired - Three Favorites Win. Cressina Closes at 1 to 25-Zienap Outgames Oraculum in the First.

When Lord of the Vale, winner of the probably pointed to the retirement of the Hastings colt, owned by August Belmont, president of the Jockey Club. The Lord is now a six-year-old, and his performances this season have been so poor that Mr. Belmont declared that he Grand Consolation in 1903, was ignomini- 28 to get one more good race out of him Ind. Horses, and then send him to Garnett, S. C. In his four starts this year Lord of the Vale was never a good piece of racing mayesferday's the Lord was beaten four Ind. Horses, chinery. Even in the start previous to lengths by Martin Doyle at the Aqueduct meeting fifteen days ago. Then the Lord showed some of his old-time ability, but 29 could not go the mile asked of him.

In yesterday's race Lord of the Vale 31 had such company as Onatas, Solon Shingle, Luretta, and Toscan-company that the Lord should easily beat. But Mr. Belmont's horse evidently has seen his winning days, and both Onatas and Solon Shingle beat him to the finish. The Lord Ind. was so highly respected by the fraternity that they sent him to the post a 9-to-20 favorite, with Onatas at 5 to 1, Luretta at to 1, and Solon Shingle and Toscan rated as long shots. For three-quarters of a mile Lord of the Vale ran in front and Horner had the colt in his lap, but when Onatas began to make his move half way down the stretch, Horner gave Lord of the Vale his head, and instead of responding, the Hastings colt utterly and three-sixteenths miles; old course.

SIXTH RACE-Selling; mares and geldings; one Gore, wondering at her silence. She gave a gasp. "He is do failed to maintain his early stride and Ind. stopped so badly that victory was easy for Onatas, and Solon Shingle got up in time to squeeze the Lord out of the place. Miller on Three Winners.

Friday offerings at Benning are of the most ordinary sort, and yesterday was no exception. The winning of three favorites and one second choice gave the public the best of the betting, for the fourth race, with only two entrants, was tellus. a closed book so far as wagering was concerned. And the price on Lord of the Play. Vale was so short that few cared to accept him. Miller again rode three winners, and finished second in another race. He rode Cambyses in the last race, but Grand Duchess. his mount was badly beaten all the way.

The first race furnished an exciting fin ish between Zienap and Oraculum. Oraculum looked all over a winner a furlong out, and had two lengths the best of it out, and had two lengths the best of it on Zienap, but Shilling got very busy on Zienap at the end, and Oraculum was nosed out in the last jump. These two were so much better than the others that Oraculum was five lengths in front of Dolly Spanker, who beat Lord Boanerges for the show end.

37 -FIRST RACE—Six furlongs; Columbia course. Time, 0:12 3-5, 0:24 4-5, 0:37, 1:15 3-5, $400 added; Oraculum was five lengths in front of Table 1 and the show end.

38 -FIRST RACE—Six furlongs; Columbia course. Time, 0:12 3-5, 0:24 4-5, 0:37, 1:15 3-5, $400 added; Oraculum was five lengths in front of Table 1 and the show end.

39 -FIRST RACE—Six furlongs; Columbia course. Time, 0:12 3-5, 0:24 4-5, 0:37, 1:15 3-5, $400 added; Oraculum was five lengths in front of Table 1 and the show end.

39 -FIRST RACE—Six furlongs; Columbia course. Time, 0:12 3-5, 0:24 4-5, 0:37, 1:15 3-5, $400 added; Oraculum was five lengths in front of Table 1 and the show end.

30 -FIRST RACE—Six furlongs; Columbia course. Time, 0:12 3-5, 0:24 4-5, 0:37, 1:15 3-5, $400 added; Oraculum was five lengths in front of Table 1 and the show end.

30 -FIRST RACE—Six furlongs; Columbia course. Time, 0:12 3-5, 0:24 4-5, 0:37, 1:15 3-5, $400 added; Oraculum was five lengths in front of Table 1 and the show end.

30 -FIRST RACE—Six furlongs; Columbia course. Time, 0:12 3-5, 0:24 4-5, 0:37, 1:15 3-5, $400 added; Oraculum was five lengths in front of Table 1 and the show end.

The inability of Jockey Hagan to get Re? Knight away from the post with the others cost this norse the second race. Red Knight and Agile were the last two to get going, but Miller shook up Agile and gained the command of the field a furlong out. Hagan was compelled to take Red Knight around the d, and closed up a lot of ground. The and he could not get up to Agile, al-though it was plainly evident that Red Knight had the most speed of the bunch and would have won eased-up under more # third position for a time.

only A. J. Joyner's clever filly, Cressina, and T. D. Sullivan's, G. L. M., to run for a mile and seventy yards. It was practically a walkover for Cressina, as she was under wraps nearly the entire jourrepaid those who bet on his chances last and these two ran as they were picked.

However, Landsman was a winner from 107; Diebold, 96.

The largest field of the card was pre-sented in the last race, which brought out seventeen starters. Cambyses, who disappointed his followers last Monday, when he was beaten by E! Dorado, was opened an equal favorite with Tanager, at 3 to 1, but the latter finally got the call in the lively market, with prices aroun

Good Card for To-day.

For this afternoon, the Jockey Club has two features on the card. One is the Seventh Hunters' Steeplechase, at about three miles, with seven entries, and the other is the Seventh Benning Special, for Scratched-Leonard Joe Hayman, 115; Saylor, 108. other is the Seventh Benning Special, for which there are fourteen entrants. But the which will show Oxford and Ormonde's Right, the best two horses at Benning, in this race. Both horses are in fine form ease, and Ormonde's Right won in his one start. Two selling races with big

He Billy Garth yesterday purchased T. S. (5) Adelinette, 114..... 1 2 7z 7z 7z 7z 7z 7z 8 Horner.

Martin from C. C. Smithson for the stable of R. A. Rainey, the Cleveland mil-stable of R. A. Rainey lionaire, who engaged Garth to select and train a stable of runners for him. T. S. had him in charge all the time. He is a fair sort of horse, but Garth thinks he

CRESCENT CITY PARK OPENS.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 23 .- The Crescent City Jockey Club will open its winter season of racing to-morrow. There are twenty-two entries for the Inaugural Handicap at three-fourths of a mile. The entries follow:

First race—Five and a half furiongs. Cut Glass. 195; Sneer, 194; Sir Walter Rollins, 198; Ash Wednesday, 195; Plater, 14; Optional, 189; Cennon Ball, 112; Quinn Brady, 198; Operator, 199; Bitter Hand, 195; Marco and Nona W., 199 each; Pin-

197; Judge Post, 87; Dr. Spruill, 197; Harmakis and Orly II, 194 each, and Gold Circle, 82. Fourth race—Six furlongs; Inaugural Haudicap, Bill Phillips, 199; Bertha E., 95; Jack Dolan, 118; THE RED WINDOW. Frontenac, 114; Mcadow Breeze, 111; Belmere and Rebo, 108 each; Hannibal Bey, 110; St. Valentine. 198; Cutter, 107; Orbicular, 111; Woodsaw, 104; Minnie Adams, 115; Great, 84; Lady Vashti, 103; Mortiboy, 36; Lady Henrietta, 165; La Sorciere, 115; Pompadour, 86; Miltiades, 193; Toboggan, 108, and Concept, 150.

By FERGUS HUME.

Copyright, 1904, by G. W. Dillingham Company.

Concert, 200. Sittlanes, 183 Touggair, 184. Section of the Private and a half furlongs. Invasion, 194; Evening Star, 111; Butiuskie, 195; Alencon, 199; Busk, 198; Adbell and Cutter, 112 each; J. W.

BENNING ENTRIES.

chase; about three miles.

one-half furlongs; old course.

ork and Play.

Am Trying.

ne and one-half miles; old course

Wgt. Ind. Horses. V 168 263 Mount Henry. ... 165 32 Kirklevington. ... 165 ... Essex

THIRD RACE-Maiden two-year-olds; five and

FOURTH RACE-The seventh Benning Sp

FIFTH RACE-Two-year-olds and upward; one

BENNING'S SELECTIONS.

Fourth race-Nemesis, Bulwark, Dainty.

Fifth race-Oxford, Ormondes Right,

Sixth race-Emperor of India, Ivanhoe,

Orphan Lad.

ile and seventy vards: Columbia course.

Lost in the Darkness. While the terrible word was yet on the housekeeper's lips, Bernard stepped for- Gilroy, clinging to him. ward and loosened the handkerchiefs. That round the neck was one of Sir Simon's own, a yellow bandanna, woven of FIRST RACE-Selling: three-year-olds and up strong silk, and eminently suited to the deadly purpose it had been used for. But that your grandfather disinherited you, how had the dead man's own handker- andchief been so utilized by the murderer? While untying the knot, Bernard wonder- crime ed; but he gained an inkling into the method pursued when he removed the white handkerchief which had been bound across the mouth. It exhaled a faint self. "You killed him, you strangled him. across the mouth. It exhaled a faint I swear to it-I swear to it! Help!" she odor of chloroform, so it was apparent raised her voice to scream. SECOND RACE-The seventh Hunters' Steeplethat the old baronet had been first renthat the old baronet had been first ren-dered unconscious, and then strangled had been drawn into a trap.

CHAPTER V.

> "What do you know of this?" asked by the startled young man into the pas-Gore, in a hoarse voice, turning to the sage and toward the landing. Below, in the hall, the door of which was open, the old course.

Wgt. Ind. Horses.

110 3 The Galloper...

110 23 Ambush.

110 129 Ambush.

110 Loudoon Light...

110 3 Theodor Light...

110 13 Theodor Light...

110 10 George G. Hall. 100

W Mammrinco 107

May Hall 107

Talkafive 107

20 Sweet Eileen 107

Byrum 107

Temmeraire 107 She had ceased to cry out, and was staring at him with glittering eyes. At the same time she appeared to be listening intently. Far off could be heard the cooking up the stairs. On the vision of this alarmed group reeled Mrs. "Oh, Bernard-Bysion of this alarmed group reeled Mrs." ing intently. Far off could be heard the Gilroy, clinging and shricking to Bernard—should have kissed a murderer." should have kissed a murderer." should have kissed a murderer." "Hark!" said Mrs. Gilroy, ra sound of approaching footsteps echoing along the pavement. Evidently a policeman, summoned by Mrs. Gilroy's shriek, was hurrying to see what was the matter. As the door had been left open he would know where to enter. These thoughts flashed through Mrs. Gilroy's shriek, will be a shrill whistle and said a she stared at the pale voil of the door for dear life. The cook and housemaid receded toward the back of the hall as Bernard, dragging Mrs. Gilroy's comming. Take him away to jail, officer."

"Help me—help me! He will escape!" The other police are coming. Take him away to jail, officer."

"No! no!" said Beryl, anxiously. "Lucy is up stairs with the corpse. Come and take her away. She can't remain here."

"Yes, I know," said Mrs. Gilroy's said Beryl, anxiously. "Lucy is up stairs with the corpse. Come and take her away. She can't remain here."

"Yes, I know," said Mrs. Gilroy's said Mrs. Gilroy's said Mrs. Gilroy's away—drive away—drive away."

"No! no!" said Beryl, anxiously. "Lucy is up stairs with the corpse. Come and take her away. She can't remain here."

"Yes, I know," said Mrs. Gilroy's gardent, in the carriage and shrieked, "Oh, horrible! bridge away—drive away."

"No! no!" said Beryl, anxiously. "Lucy is up stairs with the corpse. Come and take her away. She can't remain here."

"Yes, I know," said Mrs. Gilroy's properties away. She can't remain here."

"Yes, I know," said Mrs. Gilroy's properties away. She can't remain here."

"Yes, I know," said Mrs. Gilroy is the hall as Bernard, dragging Mrs. Gilroy is up stairs with the corpse. Come and take her away. She can't remain here."

"Yes, I know," said Mrs. Gilroy is up stairs with the corpse. Come and take her away. She can't remain here."

"Yes, I know," said Mrs. Gilroy is up stairs with the corpse. Come and take her away. She can't remain here."

"Yes, I know," said Mrs. Gilroy is up stairs with the carriage and shrieked, "Oh, hor' is a day." thoughts flashed through Mrs. Gilroy's rained in the saw now that his position was mind as she stared at the pale young man. Also there were sounds in the lower part of the house hinting that the servants had been aroused. A look well, girl. Am I the man?"

"You have visited in the kitchen for overing from her momentary alarm, and stairs. He saw now that his position was dangerous, but his wits were so bewilder-copiously.

"Some one like me has, but not me. Look well, girl. Am I the man?"

"You have visited in the kitchen for overing from her momentary alarm, and stairs. He saw now that his position was dangerous, but his wits were so bewilder-copiously.

"James, where is Francis?"

"He's gone off after the murderer, mum, said James, toouching his hat; "but the policeman caught him by the coat."

Look well, girl. Am I the man?" that the servants had been aroused. A the policeman caught him by the coat. distant clock struck the three-quarters, and even at that terrible moment Bernard remembered that in his vague wan-derings after the boy he had been forty-Wgt. Ind. Horses. Wgt. 110 ... Saylor ... 102 ... 115 92 Orphan Lad... 92 ... 107 (18) Ormonde's Right 112 five minutes getting to Crimea Square. And Mrs. Gilroy still looked.

d. Horses. Wgt. Ind. Horses. W He was a strong old man."

"It's a lie—a lie" cried Bernard, very riage drove up. Out of it stepped Lucy pale. "I did not enter—"

Wondering more than ever at this it could not have been so long. The skin was still warm to the touch, but that might have been because the room was First race-Azelina, Workman, The Also, the dead man was seated close to the fire. "How terrible!" mutter-Second race-Essex, Mount Henry, Mued Bernard, whose emotions were not yet inder control. "I must get help." He turned to go, but the housekeeper, Third race-Hiram, Narelle, Work and suddendy becoming endowed with life, flung herself in his patch. "No!" she said harshly "Don't seek help if you value

"What do you mean?" asked Gore. "Y striving to shake off the hand she laid ficer.

"Yes! he's been making love and visiting me for the last week!"

pale and startled: "but you know you quarreled with my uncle."

GREF KILLS FATHER "I thought so," cried Mrs. Gilroy, triumphantly. "Cook." "I know him too," said the cook, keeping well out of the way. "It's the young soldier as courts Jane. Bernard's his Had he but reflected for a moment, he

Gore, quite unnerved. "Is your name Bernard?" asked the po-

"Yes! but--"

"Then you are guilty."
"He is-he is!" cried the housemaid. "He was here this evening, but went away at 6. Sir Simon said he would see him after 10. Oh, Bernard, how could you!" sobbed Jane. "To think I should have took up with a man as 'ull be put in the Chamber of Horrors.' "Policeman, let me go," said Gore, firm-

"There is some mistake." will be here soon, and then you'll be lodged in jail.'

"You know I did not commit this "Mrs. Gilroy," cried the young man, verwhelmed with horror, "you know I

> "No," she said flercely, and with her eyes on his face. "You came to see Sir non after ten. I let you in myself. I waited below while you spoke with Sir Simon, and you left fifteen minutes ago.

"I had only just come."

"Oh, Bernard—Bernard. Sobold data! Steps and speaking quietly. Steps and speaking quietly. There was also found on the blanket a should have kissed a murderer."

Mrs. Webber threw herself back into leather case in which the old man kept.

"I "Bring him under the lamp, policeman," arrest you in the King's name," said the said Jane, hesitating.

officer, promptly.

"Yes, yes! for murder-murder!" cried housemaid back, "there is no time. Here Mrs. Gilroy, breathlessly.

"Murder!" the other servants shricked.

"Who is dead?" asked the policeman, with professional stolidity.

"In the six said Mrs. General with Mr. Beryl. Ah—hark!" There was a sound of approaching This is his grandson. wheels, and a moment afterward a car-evidence against you," said the policeman.

"Come up the stairs, we must see this corpse. A titled man, too, and your grandfather-you audacious scoundrel!" "What's this?" asked Julius. "Bernard," cried Lucy, running forward, "what have you done?" "I tell you I am innocent," said Bernard, "Murdered his grandfather, miss," said his lips dry and his face pale. "I came the policeman "To kill Sir Simon. Jane," cried Mrs. up the stairs, followed by the cook and housemaid. "Don't housemaid. But Mrs. Gilroy still held her cy uttered a wild shriek and sprang

"You know him, then?" asked the of-"Julius, It is a lie!" 'I hope so," said Beryl, who looked

"Ah, did he?" said the policeman, and felt for his pocketbook. In doing so, he slightly relaxed his grip, and Bernard was ame."

would have stood his ground and have faced the worst; but with the accusing face of Mrs. Gilroy before him, and a memory of the housemaid's evidence and Beryl's enmity, he decided hastily to fly. In a moment he laid the policeman flat on his back by a quick wrestling trick and darted out into the street. Mrs. Gilroy ran to the door shrieking murder, and the word was heard by three or four pe licemen who were tramping hurriedly along in the wake of the breathless page At once they realized the situation plunged into the fog after the flying form of the soldier. The page followed also but speedily returned with the news tha "The magistrate will decide that. Help areas street

"He's bound to be caught," said Mrs. Gilroy. to longer bear the disgrace of his son, "I hope not," said Beryl, who was Dennis Feeley, a veteran of the civil war, standing in the hall much disturbed. "After all, he is my cousin." was found dead in his room in a lodging house at 17 Atlantic avenue Brooklyn. this morning. An ambulance surgeon

"And a murderer," added the house-keeper. "Wait here, policeman." from the Long Island College Hospital pronounced it a case of heart fallure, but "But he's got away," said the officer, onsiderably ruffled by the escape. "I several facts subsequently discovered innust follow.'

dered unconscious, and then strangled with his own bandanna. But who was guilty of the crime?

I went upstairs to see my master. He was dead—strangled. I ran out calling drawing him back. "You can't follow in murder, and you were almost on the door-the fog. It's thicker than ever. Mrs. "The others are after him," said Julius, broken heart. the fog. It's thicker than ever. Mrs. stricken while sitting in bed reading let-"Oh, what's the matter?" asked a found on the blanket. They were all

"To see if poor master was dead,"

"On, what's the matter: asked a round on the blanket. They were signed "Your loving son, James Crow-peared at the window of the carriage, which stood at the door. "Mr. Beryl!"

[To see if poor master was dead," which stood at the door. "Mr. Beryl!"

[To see if poor master was dead," which stood at the door. "Mr. Beryl!"

[To see if poor master was dead," which stood at the door. "Mr. Beryl!"

[To see if poor master was dead," which stood at the door. "Mr. Beryl!"

[To see if poor master was dead," which stood at the door. "Mr. Beryl!"

[To see if poor master was dead," which stood at the door. "Mr. Beryl!"

[To see if poor master was dead," which stood at the door. "Mr. Beryl!"

[To see if poor master was dead," which stood at the door. "Mr. Beryl!"

[To see if poor master was dead," which stood at the door. "Mr. Beryl!"

[To see if poor master was dead," which stood at the door. "Mr. Beryl!"

[To see if poor master was dead," which stood at the door. "Mr. Beryl!"

[To see if poor master was dead," which stood at the door. "Mr. Beryl!"

[To see if poor master was dead," which stood at the door. "Mr. Beryl!"

[To see if poor master was dead," which stood at the door. "Mr. Beryl!"

[To see if poor master was dead," which stood at the door. "Mr. Beryl!"

[To see if poor master was dead," which stood at the door. "Mr. Beryl!"

[To see if poor master was dead," which stood at the door. "Mr. Beryl!"

[To see if poor master was dead," which stood at the door. "Mr. Beryl!"

[To see if poor master was dead," which stood at the door. "Mr. Beryl!"

[To see if poor master was dead," which stood at the door. "Mr. Beryl!"

[To see if poor master was dead," which stood at the door. "Mr. Beryl!"

[To see if poor master was dead," which stood at the door. "Mr. Beryl!"

[To see if poor master was dead," which stood at the door. "Mr. Beryl!"

[To see if poor master was dead," which stood at the door. "Mr. Beryl!"

[To see if poor master was dead," which stood at the door. "Mr. Beryl!"

[To see i "Sir Simon has been murdered by his in Dannemora Prison, where he is appar"Oh, Bernard—Bernard!" sobbed Jane,

"Hark!" said Mrs. Gilroy, raising her the carriage and shrieked, "Oh, horrible! his papers. Among those was one sh dear father," says:

mum," said James, touching his hat, "but for the 'orses I'd have gone also."
"Wait—wait," said Mrs. Webber, hurryfor the 'orses I'd have gone also."
"Wait-wait," said Mrs. Webber, hurry-"No!" said Mrs. Gilroy, pushing the ing up the steps. "How terrible-poor Sir Where is the body?" she asked, "Of course, I don't blame you, fa-ther. You certainly had good reason, but "In the sitting-room on the first floor," said Mrs. Gilroy. I beg of you not to let the past restrain you from writing me just once. I hope 'Where the red light is?" asked the

"There is no red light," said Mrs. Gillooked amazed, as well they might, on seeing Bernard in the grip of the police-rid cry of murder." But I tell you there is, said the horseling Bernard in the grip of the police-rid cry of murder."

"The red light." said Julius, starting.
"I wonder"—he hurried outside and looked up to the dark front of the house.
"There's no red light, Mrs. Webber," he alled out. "I know there wasn't," cried Mrs. Giloy, sitting down, evidently exhausted. 'You must be mistaken, ma'am." where the cook and the housemaid. "Don't you see who it is?"

Jane staggered forward supported by the cook. "Lor," she gasped in terror, "it's Bernard. Whatever did you—"

"You know him then?" and the stairs, followed by the cook and housemaid. But Mrs. Gilroy still held her ground and caught hold of Beryl's arm. "Keep him fast," sir," she said savagely. "There is none. Yet I am sure—I'll ask Lucy," and she ran into the house again. "Come and show me where the record in the cook and housemaid. But Mrs. Gilroy still held her ground and caught hold of Beryl's arm. "Keep him fast," sir," she said savagely. "Lucy," and she ran into the house again. "Come and show me where the record in the cook and housemaid. But Mrs. Gilroy still held her ground and caught hold of Beryl's arm. "Keep him fast," sir," she said savagely. "Come and show me where the record in the cook and housemaid. But Mrs. Gilroy still held her ground and caught hold of Beryl's arm. "Keep him fast," sir," she said savagely. "There is none. Yet I am sure—I'll ask Lucy," and she ran into the house again. "Come and show me where the record in the cook and housemaid. But Mrs. Gilroy still held her ground and caught hold of Beryl's arm. "Keep him fast," sir," she said savagely. "There is none. Yet I am sure—I'll ask Lucy," and she ran into the house again. "Come and show me where the record in the cook and housemaid. But Mrs. Gilroy still held her ground and caught hold of Beryl's arm. "Keep him fast," sir," she said savagely. "There is none. Yet I am sure—I'll ask Lucy," and she ran into the house again. "Come and show me where the record in the cook and housemaid. But Mrs. Gilroy still held her ground and caught hold of Beryl's arm. "Keep him fast," sir," she said savagely. "There is none. Yet I am sure—I'll ask Lucy," and she ran into the house again. "Come and show me where the record in the cook and the cook."

CONTINUED NEXT MONDAY.

Another letter reads:: "Forgive me, dear father, for errors in to find any of the old man's relatives.

BENNING, FRIDAY, NOV. 23, 1906.

h			Post								-	I	Bettin	g
4	Index.	Starters.	Pos.	St.	16.	34-				Jockeys.	Op.	Hi.	CI.	Pl.	3d.
G.	4	Zienap, 3, 112	11	9	514	51	21	23	1 h	Shilling.	6	10	8	3	7-5
e.	222	Oraculum, 2, 112	1	1	217/2	2112	12	Ti	23	Miller.	2	13 - 5	2	4-5	2-5 p	(35)	D. Spanker, 5, 128	7 .	. 8	7.4	6135	51/2	42	316	J. Jones.	3	5	- 4	8-5	4-5
é i	(15)	L. Boan'ges, 2, 107	8	6	45%	459	31	36	41	Notter.	5	6	5	2	1
_		Pater, 3, 118					41	55	511	Lee.	7	8	7	5-2	7-5
a.	A 22 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2	Ala Russell, 3, 98	2	-2	Ib	Ib	6136	ga	616	Beckman.	50	100	100	30	15
6	13	Laura A., 2, 88	5	11	85	82	Sh	81	7h	Mercado.	8	12	12	5	5-2
9	*	Listless, 3, 93	38	7	63	71	74	756	81	G. Burns.	50	100	60	20	30
*-		Lucy Marie, 2, 90.	6.	10	11	H	91	92	94	Chandler.	10	20	15	6	-3
×	exceptions.	R. of Dawn, 4, 104	3	4	10	10	10	10	10	Mahon.	20	30	15	6	3
ď	19	Jupiter, 3, 119	4	3	91/2	91/2	11	11	11	Herner.	20	30	30	12	6
L. I

Zienap closed with a rush through the stretch and outgamed Oraculum right on the end. Latter equal conditions. Bohemia was third choice in the ring, but she was all-in at the three-quarters, after hanging on to third position for a time.

Zienap closed with a rush through the stretch and outgamed Oraculum right on the end. Latter had no excuse, and faltered right at the finish. Dolly Spanker finished gamely. Lord Boanerges ran the three-quarters, after hanging on to Scratched—Pretension, 132; Belle Strome, 115; Peter Knight, 94.

Cressina's Easy Vietory.

Leonard Joe Hayman and Saylor were scratched in the fourth race, which left only A. J. Joyner's claver all.

Services of the fourth race, which left only A. J. Joyner's claver all.

	Post										Betting
Index.	Starters.	Pos.	St.	14.	14.	14.	7/4.	Fin.	Jockeys.	Op.	Hi.	Cl.	Pl.	33.
(30)	Agile, 4, 115	2	8	84	5:34	52	1116	1:36	Miller,	3-5 11	-10	1	2-5
(19)	Red Knight, 6, 115	7	9.	9	9	9	81	23	Hagan.	5	7	7-2	6-5	1 - 2
292	Sally K., 2, 87,	. 1	5	112	32	11/2	211/2	375	Bilac.	10	12	6	2	1
19	Cederst'me, 4, 115	8	2	2%	43	Sh	Sit	44	W. Doyle,	20	43	30	10	4
192	Bohemia, 5, 112	3	3	31	214	-51	41.	55	Horner.	4	6	5	7-5	3-5
5	Ted, 2, 90	6	7	73	716	21	31	84	Notter.	12	20	15	6	5-2
212	Dekaber, 6, 112	9	1	614	85	82	74	75	Shilling.	15	50	40	10	4
28	Kiam'ha II, 3, 107	5	6	5n	16	611	61	810	Dickson.	50	100	60	20	10
	B'way Girl. 4, 112,	4	4	4h	61	756	9	9	Christian.	50	100	100	30	15 of ordinary two-year-olds, and was strongly backed at 7 to 5 and 13 to 16. Lee Harrison II, who has raced three times this week, was second in favor, and these two ran as they were picked.

Red Knight was much the best, and with an equal break he could not have lost. Practically strongly backed at 7 to 5 and 13 to 16. Lee Harrison II, who has raced three times this week, was second in favor, and these two ran as they were picked.

Scratched-Lord of the Vale, 115; Pioneer, 112; Homelander, 110; Midas, 110; Snow Ball, 107; Hera, Lord of the Vale, 115; Pioneer, 112; Homelander, 110; Midas, 110; Snow Ball, 107; Hera, Lord of the Vale, 115; Pioneer, 112; Homelander, 110; Midas, 110; Snow Ball, 107; Hera, Lord of the Vale, 115; Pioneer, 112; Homelander, 110; Midas, 110; Snow Ball, 107; Hera, Lord of the Vale, 115; Pioneer, 112; Homelander, 110; Midas, 110; Snow Ball, 107; Hera, Lord of the Vale, 115; Pioneer, 112; Homelander, 110; Midas, 110; Snow Ball, 107; Hera, Lord of the Vale, 115; Pioneer, 112; Homelander, 110; Midas, 110; Snow Ball, 107; Hera, Lord of the Vale, 115; Pioneer, 112; Homelander, 110; Midas, 110; Snow Ball, 107; Hera, 110; Midas, 110; Midas, the place from Bright Boy.

The largest field of the card was presented in the last race, which have the place from the last race, which have the presented in the last race.

		Post								-	-	Bettin	g
	Starters.									Op.	Hi.	Cl.	Pl.	3d.
	Onatas, 6, 104									4	6	5	1	100
	S'n Shingle, 5, 10	4 2	3	134	4b	3%	34	2%	Lec.	12	15	15	2	1-2
	L. of Vale, 6, 10	77 3 .	4	152	12	1116	2114	38	Horner,	1-2	3-5	9-20	100	1000
	Luretta, 4, 104	· 4	2	21	21	241/2	45	412	Notter.	6	10	- 8	7-5	13
17	Toscan, 6, 107	. 5	1	34	3h	5	5	5	J. J. Walsh,	15	59	40	10	2 the rest of the platers ranging from 7 to 1 to 100 to 1. Shilling got away in front with Tanager, but was unable to get enough speed out of her to stick the distance, and she was as badly beaten as Cambyses, who was lengths back all the Cambyses, who was lengths back all the Cambyses, who was lengths back all the way. Chalfonte, the winner, raced close to Tanager and Gentian, and when the last two quit it was merely a gallop for Chalfonte to the end.

Scratcae—New York, 107, Pioneer, 108.

40 —FOURTH RACE—One mile and seventy yards; Columbia course. Time, 0:11 4-5, 0:23 4-5, 0:49 to Tanager and Gentian, and when the last two quit it was merely a gallop for Chalfonte to the end.

		Post								-	-	Betting-	-	-
	Starters.									Op.	Hi.	Cl.	Pl.	3d.
	Cressina, 115	2	2	11	12	111/2	1a	111	Horner,			1-25
.30	G. L. M., III	1	1	2.7	2	2	2	2	Brady.	19	20	20

race that probably will prove the most interesting of the six, will be the fifth, post 3 minutes. Off at 3.58. Start good. Won easily; place driving. Winner, ch. c., by Atheling—

Thistle	down. Owner, T	homas	Clyd	е. Т	rainer	, A.	G.	West	011.		Cit. C	19 102	25,611.02	1115
		Post										Bettin	g
Index.	Starters.	Pos.	St.	3/8.	34-	36.	28.	Fin.	Jockeys.	Op.	Hi.	CI.	PL	3.2
152	Landsman, 115	. 2	1	11	121/2	13	14	14	Miller.		7-5 L
(34)	L. Harrison II, 11	0 5	4	24	21/2	21/2	2%	21	Notter.		5
	Bright Boy, 94	. 7	8	62	51/2	41/2	31	31/2	G. Burns.	10		20	7	3
132	Yorkist, 120	. 8	10	10	10	92	52	4116		5		8	3	8-5
	Crafty, 105	. 3	3	Sh	41.	51	614	514				10	4	9
	Umbrella, 98										25	29	7	3

train a stable of runners for him. T. S. Martin was bred and raised in Alberacc, but was doing his best at the finish. Bright Boy just lasted long enough to save third. Yorkist, had him in charge all the time. He is a Scratched—Cambyses, 109: My Son, 98.

air sort of horse, but Garth thinks he vill be useful among Mr. Rainey's colection.

42 SIXTH RACE—Seven furlongs; Columbia course. Time, 0:13, 0:24 2-5, 0:36 4-5, 0:49, 1:29 1-5, 9400 added; value to winner, $180. For two-year-olds and upward. Nonwinners at the meeting. Selling. At post I minute. Off at 4:25. Start fair. Won easily; place driving. Winner, ch. c., by Star Shoot—Magna Charta. Owner, A. L. Aste. Trainer, C. H. Diebold.

		Post										-Bettin	ig
Index.		Pes.	St.	360	1/4.	1/2	34.	Fin.	Jockeys.	Op.	Hi.	Cl.	Pl.	3d.
19	Chalfonte, 3, 99		3	41	31	32	11	10	Hagan,	10	15	10	4	9
233	Killochan, 2, 87		6	3114	5h	4%	33	216	G. Burns.	6	8	7	5-2	7-5
333	Scarfell, 5, 110	16	4	51/2	24	. 15	216	30	Lec.	6	8	-	5-2	7-5
21	Gentian, 3, 97	12	2	25	41	5b	4h	4h	Yorke.	36	40	30	10	. 5
	And. Mack, 5, 105		17	12	92	92	82	51	Beckman.	15	23	20	8	4
	Tanager, 2, 89	1	1	13	156	21	52	62	Shilling.	3	5	13-5	1	1-2
162	Cambyses, 2, 94	8	10	81	6:	6136	6136	7b	Miller.	3	d	7-2	7-5	3-5
19	Ladsarion, 3, 102.	. 14	8	714	736	73	7h	Sh	Notter.	10	12	10	4	0-0
	Snow Ball, 3, 99	3	9	10	10	10	19	92	Horner,	15	20	29		4
	Akbar, 3, 106		7	92	11	11	11	10	Dickson.	20	40	30	10
	Wab. Queen, 2, 84		11	11	12	12	12	11	W. Burns,	8	15	12	. 5	5-2.
25	Bet. Binford, 2, 84	5	16	15	15	13	13	12	Mahon.	50	100	100	46	90
	Judge White, 3, 99	9	.5	61	81	8h	91	13	Brady.	10	20	20	80	20
	Nonsense, 3, 97	13	12	14	14	15	15	14	Schaller,	100	100	60	90	10
	Echcalale, a., 105	8	13	13	13	14	14	15	Pohanka.	30	100	100	30	15
	Nioless, 2, 56	2	14	16	16	16	16	16	Bilac.	100	100	100	40	20
	Ocean Spray, 3, 99.	11	15	17	17	_17	17	17	J. J. Walsh.	20	40	30	10	5

2. Second race—Six furlongs. Anna Ruskin, 99; Beau Winner cutered for 31,309; no bid. Chalfonte, never far from the pace, came away cleverly in the trummel, 183; Gild, 99; Jacome, 192; Pompadour, stretch and had plenty left. Killcohan closed resolutely and outgamed Scarfell. Latter ran an improved race. Tanager and Gentian quit badly. Andrew Mack closed a big gap from a bad beginning. Overweights-Akbar, 4; Cambyses, 2; Chalfonte, 2; Nicless, 2. Scratched Delphie, 107; Brittanby, 32,

DAILY COURT RECORD. DISTRICT COURTS.

"Anything you say now will be used in and he shook the wretched young man.

Court of Appeals.

with professional stolidity.

The Chief Justice, Mr. Justice Mc-Comas, and Mr. Justice Robb. William B. Ellison was admitted to practice.

Deyo vs. Deyo; pro confesso taken before, Margaret M. Murray, examiner. Complainant's solicitor, J. B. Green. Defendant's solicitor, W. E. Am-

Bryan vs. Washington Railway and Electric Com-pany; demuurer of plaintiff to second plea of de-fendant overguled. Plaintiff's attorneys, R. H. McNeill William B. Elison was admitted to practice.

No. 1702. United States vs. Evans et al.; motion for modification of judgment overruled.

No. 250. Original. Johnson Wynne Co. vs. Wright; on motion of L. A. Bailey petitioner allowed until November 2t to file replication to return to rule to show cause, and counsel on both sides

Walker vs. Hart; motion for leave to amend declaration granted in ten days. Plaintiff's attorneys, Ralston & Suddons. Defendant's attorneys, the B. J. Co. A. Douglass and G. H. Hoover.

Edmunds vs. Holden; motion for leave to amend declaration granted in ten days. Plaintiff's attorneys, the B. J. Co. A. Douglass and G. H. Hoover.

Edmunds vs. Holden; motion for leave to amend declaration granted in ten days. Plaintiff's attorneys, C. A. Douglass and G. H. Hoover.

Edmunds vs. Holden; motion for leave to amend declaration granted in ten days. Plaintiff's attorneys, C. A. Douglass and G. H. Hoover.

Edmunds vs. Holden; motion for leave to amend declaration granted in ten days. Plaintiff's attorneys, C. A. Bailey petitioner allowed until November 24 to file replication to return to rule to show cause, and counsel on both sides

Allowed to file briefs herein.

Nos. 1671 and 1674. Fifth Congregational Church

J. B. Archer, jr. Defendant's attorney, W. J. Lam-

Patent appeals Nos. 35 to 30. Wickers et al. vs. Landsmith of the Section of the Appeals Nos. 35 to 30. Wickers et al. vs. Landsmith of the Section of the Additional briefs heroin, if so adallowed to like additional briefs heroin, if so adallowed the landship of the landshi

JUSTICE ANDERSON.

New York Building and Packing Company; judgment by default for $346. Plaintiff's attorneys, Tucker & Kenyon.

Hopp vs. Pickford; leave granted plaintiff to bury, and W. C. Balderston. Defendant's attorney, Col.

Thomas Dunlop.
United States vs. Edward Williams, grand lavency; plea not guilty. Attorney, F. S. Key Smith.
Assignment for Monday, November 28: Edwards vs. Maupin; leave to file exceptions to answer extended to December 31. Complainant's solicitors, Leigh Robinson and Copway Robinson.

Assignments for Monday, November 25:
No. 3. Duckett vs. Stanley. Attorneys, L. E. Williamson, C. E. Emig. iamson, C. E. Emig.
No. 91. Rosenbaum vs. Rosenbaum. Attorneys,
Victor H. Wallace-W. S. Duvall.

Attorneys, Victor H. Wallace-W. S. Duvall.

Attorneys, Carlor

Garlor

strike out portions of amended declaration overused. Plaintiff's attorney, Tracy L. Jeffords. Defendant's attorney, Chapin Brown.

Guedrum vs. Sty: motion for new trial overruled; judgment on verdict for plaintiff or $500; appeal, bond seprædeas $600; cost. $100. Plaintiff or $00;
attorney, Tracy L. Jeffords. Defendant's attorney,
C. W. Fitts.

Bryan vs. Washington Railway and Electric Com-

Criminal Court No. 1.

JUSTICE STAFFORD. Assignments for Monday, November 25: United States vs. Henry Grant. United States vs. William C. Mercer, United States vs. James B. Kane. Criminal Court No. 2.

JUSTICE BARNARD. United States vs. Samuel Gassenheimer; receiving nbezzled railroad tickets; plea guilty; sentence owed to file additional authorities herein if so additional author

In re will of Josephine R. Shelley; on trial. Probate Court.

Estate of Harrict V. Gobrecht; will admitted t Equity Court No. 2.

Jenkins vs. Jenkins; motion to discharge property attached granted. Plaintiff's attorney. C. F.

In re lunacy of Henry E. Patterson; petitioner leclared to be of sound mind.

Gatley.

Jenkins vs. Jenkins; motion to discharge property attached granted. Plaintiff's attorney. C. F.

Diggs. Defendant's attorneys, Berry & Minor.

In re Mary T. Newyahr; order appointing Mary

Equity Court No. 2.

In 92 brancy of Henry E. Patterson; petitions redecard to be of sound mind.

Williams vs. Northern Light Mining and Milling of Mining and Milling and Milling of Mining and Milling of Milling and Milling and Milling of Milling and Milling a heard from you since my arrival here, Father let by-gones be by-gones, and write me, I implore you, a letter of forgiveness. Your loving son, "JAMES CROWLEY."

you will open a new correspondence, my dear father, as I have no one to sympathize with me in my troubles. You can't realize how abandoned I am. I have not the past. Forgive me for the sake of my dear old mother. In my fancy I see her now sitting with her arms abo neck and telling me of your sufferings and privations in the war. My heart is lacerated at your refusal to correspond with me just once. forgive and forget, and I'll be happy for-The police as yet have not been able street northwest, between Twenty-sixth and Twen Walter Brandenburg, part original lot 5, square 5, $10.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Wisconsin avenue northwest, between R and S streets—Susan P. Okie to Grace Gillette Okie, lots 225 and 226, square 1238, $10.

Twelfth place northeast, between B and C streets—Legach Turkens to Kate Express to 12

Patent appeal No. 388. Blackford vs. Wilder; argument continued by Philip Mauro for appellant, by C. H. Duell for appellant, on motion both sides are allowed to flight additional authorities herein if so and concluded by Philip Mayor for appellant; on motion both sides are allowed to flight additional authorities herein if so and concluded by Philip Mayor for appellant; on motion both sides are allowed to flight additional authorities herein if so and in the states of the streets outheast, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth visited States vs. Alphonso M. Newell, assault to kill; plea not guilty. Attorney, J. I. Peyser, United States vs. Jack Beach, receiving stolen goods; plea not guilty. Attorney, Campbell Carrington.

Somerville Company vs. Eisinger Bros.; motion for new trial overruled; judgment on verdict for defendant on set off for $67.47; appeal to kill; plea not guilty. Attorney, Campbell Carrington.

Somerville Company vs. Eisinger Bros.; motion for new trial overruled; judgment on verdict States vs. Alphonso M. Newell, assault to kill; plea not guilty. Attorney, Campbell Carrington.

Somerville Company vs. Eisinger United States vs. Alphonso M. Newell, assault to kill; plea not guilty. Attorney, Campbell Carrington.

Somerville Company vs. Eisinger United States vs. Alphonso M. Newell, assault to kill; plea not guilty. Attorney, Campbell Carrington.

Somerville Company vs. Eisinger United States vs. Alphonso M. Newell, assault to kill; plea not guilty. Attorney, Campbell Carrington.

Somerville Company vs. Eisinger United States vs. Alphonso M. Newell, assault to kill; plea not guilty. Attorney, Campbell Carrington.

Somerville Company vs. Eisinger United States vs. Alphonso M. Newell, assault to kill; plea not guilty. Attorney, Campbell Carrington.

Somerville Company vs. Eisinger William H. Somethal Carrington.

Somerville Company vs. Eisinger William L. Somethal Carrington.

Somethal States vs. Alphonso M. Newell, assault to kill; plea not guilty. Attorney, Campbell Carrington.

Somethal States vs. A

Sherwood's Addition to Brookland—James L. Sherwood's Addition to Brookland—James L. Sherwood's Addition to Brookland—James L. Sherwood is Jesse R. Sherwood, ir., half interest in lots 8 and 9, block 2; lots 11 to 14, block 3; lots 6 and 7, block 4; lots 17 and 18, block 4; all block 7, lot 6, block 8; lots 3, 7, 8, 10, and 11, block 19, 510. Jesse R. Sherwood, ir., half interest in lots 8, 9, and 10, block 8; lots 3, 7, 8, 10, and 11, block 19, 510. Jesse R. Sherwood, ir., half interest in lots 8, 9, and 10, block 1, 10 to 10, block 1, 10, and 11, block 1, 510. Jesse R. Sherwood, ir., half interest in lots 8, 9, and 10, block 1, 10 to 10, block 1, 10, and 11, block 1, 510. Plaintiff attorneys H. H. Hollander, J. E. Potbury, and W. C. Balderston. Defendant's attorney, G. Thomas Dunlop.

United States vs. Edward Williams, grand latcony; plea not guilty. Attorney, F. S. Key Smith.

No. 1013 Fifteenth street northwest—Ethel McGrew Monypeny to Lillian F. Balloch and Agnes Me-Grew Wickersham, one-fifth interest in lot 24, square 216, 810.

Half and P streets southwest and S street southwest, between Half and First streets—Rosanna
W. Clark, trustee, to Charles H. Parker, original lot 9, square 656, and original lots 1 and 4, and north one-half original lot 3, square 662, Half and S streets southwest—Clarence F. Norment irst street northwest, between N and O streets-Florence D. McAuliffe et ux. to Michael Hay-den, lot 190, square 617, $10.

519 Sixth street northeast—Mary E. Dodson et vir, Francis E., to Patrick R. Carr, lot 118,

DEEDS OF TRUST.

quare 925-Blanche C. Clawson to William E. Ed-L. Miller, $2,250, three years, 5 per cent, semi-annually, part original lot 1. Same to Harry S. Welch and Andrew W. Lukei, to secure Helen B. Welch, $500, one to twenty-five months, Helen B. Welch, $500, one to twenty-five months, 6 per cent, semi-annually, same property. can's Addition—Cora B. McNeill et vir, Robert H., to B. Francis Saul and Walter E. Hilton, to secure William J. Saul, $1,600, monthly payments, 5 per cent, lot 28, square 2708.
'etworth—Harry Wardman to Henry S. Matthews and George Y. Worthington, to secure Ella C. Mix, $19,000, three years, 5 per cent, semi-annually, lots 64 to 72, square 74.
Iount Pleasant—Charles W. King, jr., et ux, to Washington Loan and Trust Company, to se-

Mount Pleasant—Charles W. King. jr., et ux. to Washington Loan and Trust Company, to secure Equitable Co-operative Building Association, $1,000, lot 137.

Square 617—Timothy W. Dunworth et ux. to Edmond Fitzgerald and John J. Fegan, to secure Enterprise Serial Building Association, $4,800, lots 188 and 189.

Square 502—Henry W. Hennige et ux. to same, to secure same, $3,000, lot 173.

Square 539—Marganet Walsh to same, to secure same, $2,000, part lot 7.

Addition to Anacostia—Louisa P. Bowman to Hosmer M. Johnson and George O. Walson, to secure John T. Morris, executor, $1,872.83, five years, lot $27.

Square 562—Charles H. Parker to American Se-years, lot 827.

quare 662—Charles H. Parker to American Security and Trust Company, to secure National Saft Deposit, Security and Trust Company and Clarence F. Norment, trustees, $340, one, two, and three years, 5 per cent, semi-annually, original lot 2 and south ½ original lot 3, quares 656 and 682—Same to same, to secure Rosanna W. Clark trustee, $3,060, one, two, and three years, 5 per cent, semi-annually, original sanna W. Clark, trustee, $2,060, one, two, and three years, 5 per cent, semi-annually, original lot 9, square 655, and original lots 1 and 4 and north ½ original lot 3, square 667.

Square 162—Curry C. Andrews et vir., Walter S., to Union Trust Company, to secure George H. Fisher, guardian, $29,090, five years, 5 per cent, semi-annually, lot 34 and cast ½ lot 35.

Square 1270—Eva A. Emerson et vir. William N., to American Security and Trust Company, to secure National Safe Deposit, Security and Trust Company, $3,000, one, two, and three years, $ per cent, semi-annually, lot $1.